

EVERY TENANT SHOULD HAVE RENTAL INSURANCE

$ IT IS COST EFFECTIVE

The average renter's insurance premium costs approximately $15 - $30 per month. The same as a Netflix subscription!

You can usually purchase renter's insurance from the same company you purchase your car insurance, and they often offer discounted "package" deals.

PROTECT YOUR BELONGINGS

If you live in a rented apartment, house or condominium, your landlord's insurance doesn't cover your personal property, such as your electronics, bicycle, jewelry, or furniture, in the event that it is damaged, destroyed, or stolen.

If there is a fire or a natural disaster the landlord is under no legal obligation to cover the replacement of your belongings or pay to find you a new place to live.

LAYERS OF PROTECTION

You can purchase both personal property or liability renter's insurance.

Personal property coverage pays to repair or replace personal belongings. Liability coverage provides protection against a claim or lawsuit resulting from bodily injury or property damage to others.
